Your support is greatly appreciated!
Thank You!

The Forest Foundation of Kendall County's Memorial Program directly supports the Kendall County Forest Preserve District's efforts to conserve our local wildlife and connect people to nature.

This brochure provides a menu of memorial opportunities. The Foundation will also consider special recognition for general and restricted monetary gifts for preserve restoration improvements, support of educational programming, or other significant preserve amenities.

Forest Foundation of Kendall County—Memorial Examples

A Dedication Bench within a Forest Preserve

The Kendall County Forest Preserve will install a commemorative bench on a concrete pad with the name of the Honoree included on a plaque attached to the bench. The Forest Preserve will agree to maintain the bench for 10 years.

DONATION: $2,000

A Tree Planted within a Forest Preserve

The Kendall County Forest Preserve will plant a tree with the name of the honoree listed in a book maintained by the Forest Preserve in their office with the tree location.

Tree Species—Oak or Other Suitable Native Species

DONATION: $250

A Tree in a Commemorative Grove or Allée

The Kendall County Forest Preserve will plant a tree in a Memorial Grove or Trail Allée with Honoree acknowledgement associated with the tree location.

Tree Species—Oak or Other Suitable Native Species

DONATION: $500

For trees planted within a Commemorative Allée or Grove, the Honoree will be recorded in the Forest Preserve's Geographic Information System Map (and Kiosk for those trees planted within a Commemorative Grove).
